TOWN TALK.

Cueny's new bakery is about completed.

Quite a number of Mackinawites were over here on Thursday.

The days are growing long, at the rate of about two minutes per day.

The first arrival of mail under the new dispensation took place yesterday.

Wm. Spencer has opened a saloon in the south room of the Spencer House.

Several more Germans from Buffalo members of the colony, arrived last Saturday.

The "Happy Seven" netted $30 for the band by their entertainment at Mackinaw.

The roads have placed an embargo upon the wood business, none coming from the country at all.

Foster and Johnson's schooner is over half done. They expect to have her finished by the opening of navigation.

Navigation is open on the St. Clair river. The Carrie H. Blood made a trip from Marine City to Port Huron on Monday last.

The stage is now running a wagon on this end of the route. Only two or three miles wheeling, however, when good sleighing is found.

There were three bridge agents present at the "letting" Thursday. They all complimented Mr. Bell's plans for the bridge very highly.

There is not more than one or two desirable houses to rent in this place. If the village grows any the coming season, more houses will have to be erected.

It is rumored that the Methodist pulpit will soon be again supplied, and another rumor says it will not be. Our readers can take their choice which rumor to believe.

Dr. Perrin keeps on he will soon rival Nast. Some of his crayon caricatures are immense. The telegraph bulletin blackboard is where he exercises his genius.

The Wednesday evening lectures of Rev. R. M. Thompson are extremely interesting, and are beginning to be appreciated. Last Wednesday evening over sixty were present.

The Whitehall Times says that the editor who can conduct a newspaper one year without making an enemy, would make a very successful managing editor of a medical academy.

County Clerk Metivier had one leg badly bruised and sprained by the slight upsetting while on his way to the pioneer party, Monday night. He has moved around with difficulty since.

Col. Brown, of Dayton, after spending a short time upon his homestead, returned and spent last Sunday in the village. He left for home on Monday. Mrs. Col. Davis accompanying him, to have her eyes, which have been troubling her some time, treated by Dr. Williams, the celebrated oculist, of Cincinnati.

The lengthy and graceful figure of Dr. R. Joslin, of Petoskey, was seen upon the streets of Cheboygan this week. Since leaving this place a few years ago Mr. Joslin has made a considerable reputation in the practice of his profession. It was he who figuratively speaking, "bearded the lion in his den" in behalf of his client before a Justice in Little Traverse, and in language perhaps more expressive than elegant, said to him, "I will have justice or blood."

P. M. Lathrop offers for sale 20 packages of choice white fish.

The regular monthly meeting of the fire company will occur next Friday night at their hall in Cueny's building.

Rev. R. M. Thompson will preach at the Congregational church to-morrow, both morning and evening, at the usual hours.

P. M. Lathrop, in his advertisement this week, offers some bargains in teas which it would be well for those interested to look out for.

A new livery stable has been opened in the rear of the Cass House, on Third street. Mr. Gasper Bazau is the proprietor, and Chas. Smolk is the manager.

Justice Sammons' office is becoming a favorite resort. Frank will sue somebody for anybody on very favorable terms, and satisfaction guaranteed to one party or the other.

The Republican State convention is called to meet at Lansing, Wednesday March 7th, to place in nomination a Justice of the Supreme Court and two Regents of the University.

The Congregational Sunday school concert will take place at the church next Thursday night. It will doubtless be an interesting affair, and all should make it a point to attend.

Cheboygan county will be entitled to one delegate in the Republican state convention, according to the call of the State Central committee which appears in another column. A few more votes at the election last fall would have entitled the county to two delegates.

Last Monday a petition signed by A. P. Newton and seventy-five others was presented to the Legislature asking for power to apply the highway tax of certain non-residents in Cheboygan county to the reconstruction of the Little Traverse and Cheboygan state road.

And still they come. This week Mr. Lathrop sold to a man from Berrien county 100 acres of land in section 23, town 37, 2 west, for $1,000. The gentleman immediately returned for his family. The land is four miles from town, and one mile from Mullet lake. It was a choice piece and well located.

The editor of the Free Press was quite extensively bull-dozed by a woman the other day while in the postoffice, and only made a five-line item of the exciting occurrence for his paper. Had a reporter of the Tribune been present, the event would have had much greater justice done. We regret not being able to give the full particulars, which his natural modesty, doubtless, prevented him from doing.

On Friday of last week Mr. McArthur presented a petition to the Legislature of Peter McDonald, William Stewart, Albert Legault and thirty-two others, asking that all such portions of T. 37 N., R. 1 W., as now attached to the townships of Grant and Inverness be attached to the township of Duncan. On the next day, he presented a remonstrance of Turner & Humphrey, J. F. McDonald and forty-six others against such a change. Both petition and remonstrance were referred to the committee on towns and counties.

About the Charter Amendment.

As is noted elsewhere, the council, at its meeting last Monday night, appointed a committee to sit with the council and consider what amendments were necessary to make the charter of this village what it should be. This, perhaps, was all right. There has been talk, and much of it, too, for a long time past that the charter needed amendments, and needed them very much to make many things legal. If our recollection is right, the Village Attorney once reported to the council that it was all right as it is. As above stated, the committee was appointed and a time set for the meeting. The village council might have been there, but it is certain that several members of the committee were not. This does not show a great deal of interest in the matter. Next Wednesday is the last day in which any new bills can be introduced into the Legislature. If anything is done about the matter it will be done at once. If not, be the charter good or bad, legal or illegal, we will have to put up with it another two years. If nothing is done about the matter, a trouble comes from it, somebody will be held responsible for the inconveniences caused, and the blame will probably fall on those who have been the cause of letting the matter go by default, by giving the impression that the charter was all right. This matter should have been carefully looked into months ago, and the people supposed that there were officers whose duty it was to do it.

The German Colony.

The German colony is not a fixed fact. The new comers are extremely well pleased with the lands received, and they have made and are making the first payments on the land. It is well secured to Cheboygan county and which is the most needed—active and industrious men to take hold and clear up the country, and make good farms out of the land. All sections of the state show that when Germans have got a firm, in this way, that they have improved the country more rapidly than almost any other class. We consider this of a commencement of a new era for this country. There will be many others follow these, and in a few years much of the splendid country which is now woods will be fine farms.

For Regents of the University.

Two Regents of the University are to be elected at the spring election. The northern part of the state has no regent. Geo. Y. Mills, of Alpena, has been spoken of in this connection, and we trust that he may receive the nomination. He is a man both in education and business qualifications, well fitted for the position, and he comes from a portion of the state which has not had the honor of being represented by a state officer, and it is due the people of this northern section that its claims to that direction be recognized.

Village Council.

The village council held a special meeting last Monday evening, the principal business coming before it was to consider regarding the necessity of making some amendments to the village charter. After considerable talk upon the subject, the President suggested that the Village Attorney, together with Messrs. Bell and Humphrey, act as a committee to investigate and submit to the council a statement of what changes were deemed necessary. The Village Attorney wanted a larger committee, and the following resolution was finally adopted:

Resolved, That a committee, consisting of Village Attorney Brown, Messrs. Bell, Humphrey, W. B. McArthur and F. M. Sammons, be appointed to meet with the council on Thursday, the 13th inst., for the purpose of drafting amendments to the village charter.

This seemed to settle the charter business for the time being, so the council proceeded to approve the liquor bonds of Wm. Spencer.

Resolutions were also adopted ordering the unpaid taxes of the present year to be advertised forthwith, and instructing the finance committee to investigate the sufficiency of the liquor bonds of Alex. McCarter.

Red Ribbons.

During the past week a large number of boys have appeared upon the streets wearing a red ribbon, for which H. J. Miner is responsible. Reading the accounts of the great red ribbon temperance revival through the country, every member of which, when he stops drinking, dons a red ribbon. Mr. Miner conceived the idea of organizing his Sunday school class into a red ribbon organization, the only qualification for membership being a pledge from each that they would "dare to do right." From this beginning, although only a week has passed, the number of young people and grown people who have put on the red ribbon is quite considerable and the number is daily increasing.

The Father of Fishes Speaks.

Geo. H. Jerome, of Niles, the Great Father-of-the-Fishes, advises that he is now about to begin the work of stocking ponds, and persons desiring fish are requested to make application at once, and tell the name of the lake, its size, its depth, the county and township in which it is located, and the railroad station at which the cans of fish are to be delivered. When this is done he will send him a can of fish. There are several lakes in this county which should receive a stock of whitefish and salmon, and doubtless, if some person who could attend to the matter of depositing the fry in the lakes would so inform Mr. Jerome there would probably be a supply forwarded for that purpose as soon as the weather would permit.

The St. Joseph.

The Detroit papers announce that C. A. Chamberlain, formerly manager and treasurer of the line of boats which the St. Joseph formed a part, has resigned, and that the stockholders have elected F. G. McDowell, of Cleveland, as his successor. The head-quarters of the company have been moved to Cleveland. Whether this change will have any effect upon the running of the St. Joe during the coming season has not yet developed, nor have we seen any intimation anywhere as to the future arrangements of the boat. Last season was doubtless an unprofitable one for the boat, and whether the new management will continue to run her here must be considered as somewhat doubtful.
